

Royal Temple Yacht Club

Family/Household Double Handed Races

Amendment to RTYC Notice of Race

The Royal Temple Yacht Club invites your family/household members to participate in a number of friendly Double Handed Races from Sunday 21st June.

The races are being hosted in accordance with the Government and RYA Guidelines relating to the Covid-19 pandemic, you are required to be familiar with and observe the guidelines.

For clarification:

All races will be calculated under the RTYC Fixed Handicap System.

No spinnakers may be used.

Each race will be a stand-alone event of one class.

To make it clear that entries must comply with government guidance and that under current guidance on social distancing, the two persons on board must be from the same household.

Amendment to RTYC Sailing Instructions

PROTESTS

In the spirit of friendliness and cooperation will mean that there are no protests.

RESULTS

Provisional results on the RTYC website as soon as possible after the day's racing.

HANDICAPS

In order to give a little more interest please be aware that adjustments may be made to handicaps after each week's racing. The RCS decision is FINAL.

AUTOHELMS may be used.

SPINNAKERS, ASSYMMETRICS AND CRUISING GENNAKERS may NOT be used.

First race to be held on Sunday 21st June.

Start times, courses and additional dates to be advised via WhatsApp group and VHF

Nick Rawbone - Rear Commodore Sail

Royal Temple Yacht Club

Website: www.rtyc.com